DESCRIPTION OF LEVELS

Examples of work and descriptions are meant to progress through the levels. For example, an employee at a level IV may also perform work listed within the previous levels.

Note: Factors that may distinguish between journey and senior levels include the degree of independence in performing the work, the complexity of the work, the scope of responsibility, and the employee's related experience. Employees at the journey levels may independently perform the full range of work identified within current or previous levels or may assist others performing work of greater complexity.

GROUNDKEEPER I: Performs routine to moderately-complex (journey-level) grounds and building maintenance work. Works under moderate supervision, with limited latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may rely on direction from others to solve problems that are not standard. Employees may also assist other staff in performing work of greater complexity.

GROUNDKEEPER II: Performs complex (journey-level) grounds and building maintenance work. Works under general supervision, with limited latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may work more independently than the previous levels, and they may routinely assist other staff in performing work of greater complexity. Employees at this level may:

- Repair and perform preventive maintenance work on fountains, planters, parking lots, driveways, roads, fences, and sidewalks.
- Inspect building exteriors and parking facilities for cleanliness, completion of requested work, and needed repairs.
- Conduct minor facility and equipment repairs and installations.

Note: Senior-level employees (levels III and IV) may perform the full range of work identified in the preceding levels, and/or may coordinate or oversee that work for others. Factors that may distinguish between senior levels include the scope of responsibility and oversight; the size, and complexity of the landscape, grounds, and building maintenance; the types of equipment used; and the employee's related experience.

GROUNDKEEPER III: Performs highly complex (senior-level) grounds and building maintenance work. Works under limited supervision, with moderate latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may assist with maintaining schedules for routine work and may:

- Install, maintain, and repair sprinkler systems.
- Provide training to others related to grounds maintenance and landscaping.
- Determine and order needed supplies.

GROUNDKEEPER IV: Performs advanced (senior-level) grounds and building maintenance work. Works under limited supervision, with considerable latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may independently perform the most complex landscape and grounds maintenance work and may lead or supervise the work of others.

Employees may:

- Oversee the implementation of plans to improve the appearance of grounds.
- Oversee the inventory of groundskeeping tools, supplies, and equipment and ensure that the equipment is well maintained and accounted for.
- Perform quality assurance reviews on work in progress and/or completed.
- Collaborate on landscaping designs and make recommendations regarding changes in landscape and projects associated with grounds maintenance.
- Conduct inspections of ground maintenance work.
- Participate in conducting equipment inspections, maintenance, and evaluation for repair, replacement, or acquisition.

GENERAL QUALIFICATION GUIDELINES
