DESCRIPTION OF LEVELS

Examples of work and descriptions are meant to progress through the levels. For example, an employee at level VII may also perform work listed within the previous levels.

Note: Factors that may distinguish between the entry and journey levels include the degree of independence in performing the work; the complexity of the work; the scope of responsibility; and the employee's related experience, education, and certifications. Other factors may include the assigned area of law and the impact of the legal work performed. Employees at the journey levels may independently perform the full range of work identified within the current or previous levels and may assist others in performing work of greater complexity.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL I: Performs entry-level legal work. Works under close supervision, with minimal latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees may also routinely assist others in performing job duties of greater complexity.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL II: Performs routine (journey-level) legal work. Works under moderate supervision, with limited latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL III: Performs moderately complex (journey-level) legal work. Works under general supervision, with limited latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL IV: Performs complex (journey-level) legal work. Works under general supervision, with moderate latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Advise clients and management on factual and legal issues.
- Testify at hearings, trials, and legislative meetings.

Note: A senior-level employee (level V-VII) may serve in a lead, supervisory, or managerial role. Senior-level employees may perform the full range of work identified within every level and/or may direct, oversee, or coordinate that work. Factors that may distinguish between senior levels include the scope of responsibility and oversight; the complexity of work; and the employee's related experience, education, and certifications. Other factors may include the assigned area of law; the impact of the legal work performed; and the size, structure, and classification of the supervised work group.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL V: Performs highly complex and/or supervisory (senior-level) legal work. Works under limited supervision, with considerable latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Coordinate, plan, and monitor legal and/or administrative activities.
- Draft bills and amendments for legislative consideration.
- Serve as an agency specialist in a particular area of law.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL VI: Performs advanced (senior-level) legal work. Works under minimal supervision, with considerable latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Direct legal activities.
- Serve as a deputy division chief or equivalent-level position.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL VII: Performs highly advanced (senior-level) legal work. Works under minimal supervision, with extensive latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Serve as a division chief or equivalent-level position
