DESCRIPTION OF LEVELS

Examples of work and descriptions are meant to progress through the levels. For example, an employee at level III may also perform work listed within the previous levels.

Note: Employees at the journey level may independently perform the full range of work listed in the examples and may assist others in performing work of greater complexity.

COURT COORDINATOR I: Performs complex (journey-level) court coordination work. Works under general supervision, with moderate latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may routinely assist others in performing work of greater complexity.

Note: A senior-level employee (levels II-III) may serve in a lead or supervisor role. Senior-level employees may perform the full range of work identified in the levels preceding their own and/or may oversee or coordinate that work for others. Factors that may distinguish between senior levels include the scope of responsibility and oversight; the nature, complexity, and impact of the work performed; and the employee's related experience, education, and certifications.

COURT COORDINATOR II (Added 9-1-2025): Performs highly complex (senior-level) court coordination work. Works under limited supervision, with considerable latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Participate in the development of court guidelines, procedures, and standards for achieving court goals.
- Monitor and evaluate court caseload and processes and make recommendations to improve overall court performance.

COURT COORDINATOR III (Added 9-1-2025): Performs advanced (senior-level) court coordination work. Works under minimal supervision, with considerable latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may oversee administrative operations for courts with the highest caseloads.
