DESCRIPTION OF LEVELS

Examples of work and descriptions are meant to progress through the levels. For example, an employee at level V may also perform work listed within the previous levels.

Note: Factors that may distinguish between entry and journey levels include the degree of independence in performing the work; the complexity of the work; the scope of responsibility; and the employee's related experience, education, and certifications. Employees at the journey levels may independently perform the full range of work identified within current or previous levels and may assist others in performing work of greater complexity.

ADULT PROTECTIVE SERVICES SPECIALIST I: Performs entry-level adult protective services work. Work is performed under close supervision, with minimal latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may have limited or no experience and spend the majority of their time performing simple to routine work following standard procedures.

ADULT PROTECTIVE SERVICES SPECIALIST II: Performs routine (journey-level) adult protective services work. Work is performed under moderate supervision, with limited latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may rely on direction from others to solve problems that are not standard, occasionally assist other staff in performing work of greater complexity, and may:

- Write reports summarizing the facts obtained during the investigations and take corrective action.
- Advise and counsel clients and caregivers during stressful situations.
- Testify in court.

ADULT PROTECTIVE SERVICES SPECIALIST III: Performs moderately complex (journey-level) adult protective services work. Work is performed under general supervision, with moderate latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Prepare statistical and special reports for management.
- Make presentations and participate in community awareness and related activities to inform the public about the program.
- Conduct risk assessments of protective services cases and determine and implement case actions.

Note: A senior-level employee (levels IV-V) may serve in a lead or supervisor role.

Senior-level employees may perform the full range of work identified in the levels preceding their own, and/or may coordinate and/or oversee that work for others. Factors that may distinguish between senior levels include the scope of responsibility, oversight, and authority; and the nature, complexity, scope, and impact of the work performed.

ADULT PROTECTIVE SERVICES SPECIALIST IV: Performs highly complex (senior-level) adult protective services work. Work is performed under limited supervision, with considerable latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Review referrals and make case assignments.
- Instruct staff on work methods, organizational procedures, and case documentation techniques.

- Develop community resources to serve the needs of clients and participate in community awareness activities.
- Develop specialized service plans to meet the needs of protective services clients.
- Participate in developing policies, procedures, and standards.

ADULT PROTECTIVE SERVICES SPECIALIST V: Performs advanced (senior-level) adult protective services work. Work is performed under minimal supervision, with extensive latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Monitor and evaluate protective services and casework activities.
- Provide consultative services and technical assistance.
- Conduct special projects to define program issues.
- Develop policies and procedures.

GENERAL QUALIFICATION GUIDELINES

EXPERIENCE AND EDUCATION

Experience in social work. Graduation from an accredited four-year college or university with major coursework in social work, counseling, psychology, criminal justice, or a related field is generally preferred. Experience and education may be substituted for one another.
