DESCRIPTION OF LEVELS

Examples of work and descriptions are meant to progress through the levels. For example, an employee at level IV may also perform work listed within the previous levels.

Note: Factors that may distinguish between the journey levels include the degree of independence in performing the work; the complexity of the work; the scope of responsibility; and the employee's related experience, education, and certifications. Employees at the journey levels may independently perform the full range of work identified within the current or previous levels and may assist others in performing work of greater complexity.

VOLUNTEER SERVICES COORDINATOR I: Performs routine (journey-level) volunteer services work. Works under moderate supervision, with limited latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may rely on direction from others to solve problems that are not standard and occasionally assist other staff in performing work of greater complexity.

VOLUNTEER SERVICES COORDINATOR II: Performs complex (journey-level) volunteer services work. Works under general supervision, with moderate latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Design and maintain volunteer instruction manuals, contribution forms, and other records.
- Prepare monthly and annual reports on volunteer services and programs.

Note: A senior-level employee (levels III- IV) may serve in a lead or supervisor role. Senior-level employees may perform the full range of work identified in the levels preceding their own and/or may oversee or coordinate that work for others. Factors that may distinguish between senior levels include the scope of responsibility and oversight; the nature, complexity, and impact of the work performed; and the employee's related experience, education, and certifications.*

VOLUNTEER SERVICES COORDINATOR III: Performs advanced (senior-level) volunteer services work. Works under limited supervision, with considerable latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Provide technical assistance and guidance in the development of volunteer services.
- Solicit contributions and ensure that contributions and donations are properly acknowledged.

VOLUNTEER SERVICES COORDINATOR IV: Performs highly advanced (senior-level) volunteer services work. Works under minimal supervision, with extensive latitude for use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Develop and revise policies and procedures for the volunteer services program.
- Analyze reports on volunteer services and programs and recommend improvements.
- Prepare budgets and monitor expenditures for volunteer programs and services.
- Work with local, state, and national groups involved in volunteer services.

GENERAL QUALIFICATION GUIDELINES

EXPERIENCE AND EDUCATION

Experience in volunteer services work. Graduation from an accredited four-year college or university with major coursework in behavioral science, business administration, or a related field is generally preferred. Experience and education may be substituted for one another.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES

For all levels

- Knowledge of community organizations and administration.
- Skill in dealing with the general public, in establishing and maintaining effective working relationships with the public and community organizations, and in the use of a computer and applicable software.
- Ability to plan, organize, and promote volunteer programs; to provide in-service training; to identify resources conducive to volunteer programs; to communicate effectively; and to provide guidance to others.

Additional for Volunteer Services Coordinator III – IV levels
