DESCRIPTION OF LEVELS

Examples of work and descriptions are meant to progress through the levels. For example, an employee at level V may also perform work listed within the previous levels.

Note: Factors that may distinguish between the journey and senior levels include the degree of independence in performing the work; the complexity of the work; the scope of responsibility; and the employee's related experience, education, and certifications. Employees at the journey levels may independently perform the full range of work identified within current or previous levels and may assist others in performing work of greater complexity.

ELIGIBILITY ADVISOR I (Title change 9-1-2025 from Texas Works Advisor I): Performs routine (journey-level) eligibility determination work for social services programs. Works under moderate supervision, with limited latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may rely on direction from others to solve problems that are not standard and occasionally assist other staff in performing work of greater complexity.

ELIGIBILITY ADVISOR II (Title change 9-1-2025 from Texas Works Advisor II): Performs moderately complex (journey-level) eligibility determination work for social services programs. Works under general supervision, with limited latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Speak to community groups to explain programs.

ELIGIBILITY ADVISOR III (Title change 9-1-2025 from Texas Works Advisor III): Performs complex (journey-level) eligibility determination work for social services programs. Works under general supervision, with moderate latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Conduct life needs assessments and participate in developing client support plans.
- Counsel clients on social services programs, related laws, tax issues, and other state and federal regulations.
- Review suspected fraud cases and make referrals to investigators.
- Review case records to determine validity and accuracy of eligibility determinations made by other staff.
- Serve on committees and attend board meetings.
- Testify in court as a technical authority on eligibility issues.

Note: A senior-level employee (levels IV-V) may serve in a lead role. Senior-level employees may perform the full range of work identified in the levels preceding their own and may provide guidance to others. Factors that may distinguish between senior levels include the scope of responsibility; the nature, complexity, and impact of the work performed; and the employee's related experience, education, and certifications.

ELIGIBILITY ADVISOR IV: (Title change 9-1-2025 from Texas Works Advisor IV) Performs highly complex (senior-level) eligibility determination work for social services programs.
