GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Performs complex (journey-level) administrative and supervisory program work. Work involves establishing program goals and objectives; developing program guidelines, procedures, and policies; developing schedules, priorities, and standards for achieving program goals; evaluating program activities; developing budget requests; and coordinating program activities. Supervises the work of others. Works under general supervision, with moderate latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

The Program Supervisor job classification series is intended for employees who are typically considered first-line supervisors and assumes responsibility for, and participate in, the daily work of an assigned agency program. Distinction within the levels depends on a variety of factors including 1) complexity of the program, 2) size and type of workforce supervised, 3) level of education and experience needed to perform the work, and/or 4) supervising the daily operations of more than one program.

EXAMPLES OF WORK PERFORMED

Supervises the work of assigned program staff and provides training and technical assistance in the program area.

Prepares and reviews reports on the effectiveness of program activities.
