DESCRIPTION OF LEVELS

Note: Employees in both levels I and II may serve in a lead or supervisory role. Factors that may distinguish between levels include the scope of responsibility and oversight, the size, complexity, and number of contracts administered, the decision-making responsibility and level of supervision exercised, the nature and complexity of work performed by employees supervised, and the employee's related experience, education, and certifications.

CONTRACT ADMINISTRATION MANAGER I: Performs advanced (senior-level) contract administration work. Works under limited supervision, with considerable latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment.

CONTRACT ADMINISTRATION MANAGER II: Performs highly advanced (senior-level) contract administration work. Works under minimal supervision, with extensive latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Review and analyze legislation related to procurement and contract management, including tracking legislative bills and assisting with bill analysis.
- Identify or forecast cost savings for initial contract, extensions, and amendments compared to previous contract.

GENERAL QUALIFICATION GUIDELINES

EXPERIENCE AND EDUCATION

Experience in contract administration and in the management, evaluation, or monitoring of contract providers. Graduation from an accredited four-year college or university with major coursework in business, public administration, law, or a related field is generally preferred. Experience and education may be substituted for one another.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES

Knowledge of negotiation strategies and techniques; contract administration and cost monitoring for large-scope or high-dollar contracts; systems and procedures used to evaluate a third-party vendor's performance; and local, state, and federal laws and regulations relevant to the administration of federal or state funds.

Skill in developing contracts, in problem resolution, and in the use of a computer and applicable software.

Ability to exercise sound judgment in making critical decisions, to analyze complex information and develop plans, to interpret complex data, to effectively demonstrate negotiation and facilitation skills, to communicate effectively, and to supervise the work of others.

REGISTRATION, CERTIFICATION, OR LICENSURE

May require certification as a Certified Texas Contract Manager (CTCM) and/or a Certified Texas Contract Developer (CTCD).
