GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Performs moderately complex (journey-level) appellate court or administrative docketing work. Work involves maintaining records and filing, tracking, and managing cases filed in an appellate or administrative court. Works under general supervision, with limited latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment.

EXAMPLES OF WORK PERFORMED

Receives, files, and processes cases on appeal from lower courts and original proceedings, or administrative hearings referred by state agencies.

Examines legal documents submitted to the court for adherence to laws and/or court procedures, and requests additional records and information as appropriate.

Sends court notices and correspondence to appropriate parties.

Certifies records for use in other courts, and maintains court files and confidential data.

Issues orders handed down by the court.

Assists in providing information to attorneys, litigants, other state agencies, and the public regarding court policies and procedures, and in responding to requests for documents.

Assists in maintaining dockets or calendar systems for tracking and managing cases.

Assists in processing appeals and in preparing the outcomes of court proceedings.

May handle checks and cash, make deposits, and create financial reports.

Performs related work as assigned.
