GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Performs moderately complex (journey-level) mediation work. Work involves assisting employees or the general public in resolving conflicts and problematic issues or concerns in situations such as filing claims, obtaining or disputing benefits, or resolving grievances; preparing participants for conferences, meetings, hearings, and proceedings; and investigating complaints. Works under general supervision, with limited latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment.

EXAMPLES OF WORK PERFORMED

Receives and reviews routine-to-complex issues and disputes from employees, government agencies, advocacy groups, residents of facilities, and the public.

Prioritizes and resolves issues and complaints by initiating investigations, conducting research, and explaining laws, policies, and procedures; makes referrals and/or escalates more complex issues to higher employees within the department.

Advises on and explains relevant state and federal rules, regulations, programs, and procedures to employees, the general public, and other stakeholders.

Consults with various groups on issues and procedures concerning conferences, meetings, hearings, and arbitration proceedings.

Facilitates information sharing among various parties involved in a grievance, dispute, or claim.

Provides information and assistance to employees, residents of facilities, or the general public; investigates and resolves complaints; and communicates with various groups on behalf of the individuals with a grievance, dispute, or claim.

Contacts affected parties, explains ombudsman services, and explains rights and responsibilities.

Records information on contacts and case actions in applicable systems.

Requests, reviews, and organizes supporting documentation to determine whether applicable information has been received.

Organizes documentation and records information on contacts and case actions.

Advocates for the rights of residents in facilities.

Assists employees or the general public in applying for benefits, preparing for hearings, responding to requests for court action, and resolving disability determination disputes.

Performs related work as assigned.
