GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Performs investigative law enforcement work. Serves as a commissioned peace officer for the Office of Inspector General at the Juvenile Justice Department. Work involves planning, organizing, and conducting investigations on agency property or involving agency interests. Works under general supervision, with moderate latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgement.

EXAMPLES OF WORK PERFORMED

Conducts and oversees security and investigations of alleged violations of laws, rules, and regulations.

Conducts and oversees security and protective operations at the gatehouse and exterior properties surrounding the secure area of the facility.

Conducts routine, random, or specifically requested searches and inspections of facility premises, persons, and vehicles entering or on facility premises.

Identifies and oversees incidents involving unauthorized entry, malicious mischief, escape, or other criminal violations; and may report, confront, apprehend, detain, or arrest suspects as appropriate.

Documents investigative activity in accordance with standard operating procedures and maintains records of cases, evidence, contraband, and property in compliance with applicable laws and retention policies.

Testifies in criminal proceedings, hearings, or trials.

Reports safety hazards and corrects them when possible; and completes required documentation for accidents or injuries within specified timeframes.

Provides training to others.

May be assigned a canine partner to assist with the detection, interception, and investigation of contraband in both secure and non-secure areas of agency-operated and contracted facilities.

Performs related work as assigned.
